2025 Administrative Plan of the Bureau of Labor Funds

	Key project items		Contents
I.	Continue selecting high- performing stocks, planning new types of domestic mandates, and prudently adjusting Taiwan equity allocations in response to financial market conditions.	I.	Strategically select high-dividend, competitively advantaged quality stocks, and construct a diversified industry allocation to achieve long-term stable returns. Continue planning new types of domestic mandates, diversifying investment styles and strategies, and strengthening oversight of external investment managers to ensure the security of fund investments.
II.	Actively plan asset allocation, monitor the investment trends in the financial market, and refine diversified investment strategies to generate long-term stable returns for funds.	I.	Consider global economic conditions and the attributes of each fund, actively execute various investment operations, and effectively enhance fund performance under prudent risk management. In response to global economic conditions and the attributes of each fund, develop diversified investment strategies to diversify risks, and achieve long-term stable returns.